

Section IX. Adoption Process

---

A draft of the Allegany County Multi-jurisdictional Hazard Mitigation Plan has been submitted to SEMO on Oct. 13, 2004. Plan review with comments was returned on Oct. 14, 2004. An edited version was submitted to SEMO for FEMA review on Oct. 18, 2004. Review and comments, with required revisions, were sent to Allegany County on February 10, 2005. FEMA revisions were completed and a final draft was sent to SEMO for approval on March 18, 2005. It is expected that the plan will be approved before May 2005 and at that time all participating jurisdictions will be required to adopt the plan.
